

SUNSHINE MAKERS

Sunshine Makers are a psychedelic soul-funk collective from London, Ontario with an uplifting message of unity and love. In April 2026, the band tracked their third album, "Turn Up The Sun," at North Hollywood's Killion Sound. Teaming up with acclaimed producer Sergio Rios (Say She She, Orgone), they utilized analog tape to capture a rich, high-fidelity sound that radiates the band's lush harmonies and deep-pocket grooves. September 4, 2026, the band will release the album's first single, titled, "The Love We Give."

Praised by CBC, and featured in Rolling Stone France, their 2025 sophomore album "The Sun Still Shines" is hailed:

“Another ray of
funk-filled optimism.”
Sydney Brasil - Exclaim!

Celebrated for their infectious live energy, Sunshine Makers have shared stages with Shad, BADBADNOTGOOD, Lady Wray, Thee Marloes, Brainstory, and many more. Pared-down versions take the band's soulful sound abroad, performing in Tokyo, Sweden, and Texas.
